

Richmond Food Security Society
Funding for Development of Community Food Gardens
April 2010 – April 2011

The purpose of this initiative is to increase food security for all members of the Richmond community. The Richmond Food Security Society is offering small grants to advance urban agriculture on the community, with particular emphasis on community gardens. Grants of up to $500 can be used to install new community gardens or expand existing ones

Community Garden Funding Opportunity for 2010-2011

Four (4) Grants of up to $500 will be provided to groups who would like to install community gardens where food will be grown.

Eligible Applicants

Community non-profit organizations and formal and informal community groups (e.g., Strata building residents, neighbourhood residents, Blockwatch groups, churches, schools, preschools etc.) All applications will be considered.

Application Process

Proposals must be received by March 31, 2010. Include an outline of your project (maximum 4 pages, see attached) and budget.
